Glenn O. Simmons, MBA

Co-Founder and President of Premier Administration, LLC.

For over thirty years, Glenn has helped clients analyze and set up tax exempt trusts. He has conducted classes for financial professionals to increase understanding of these trusts and helped explain them in seminars and personal conferences with hundreds of individuals.

Because of his vast knowledge in this area, charities, CPAs, financial professionals and clients have all consulted with him for advice and expertise in the highly specialized administering and accounting for these trusts.

"I think that charitable institutions must be very careful—with donors and the professional community—to make sure that everything they are involved with is done exactly right," says Mr. Simmons. "That is where we come in. We will make sure your CRT (Charitable Remainder Trust) complies and continues to comply with IRS regulations. We will also go the extra mile by helping the donor to understand how the CRT works, and we will be the watchdog for the charity and the donor. We have the experience and knowledge that is critical."
